Pituitary Youth
Give Some to the Bears
A Lady Says It
The Moral Is THINK
By Arthur Brisbane
Copyright, 1928, by Hearst Co.

PROFESSOR STEINACH of Vienna, who seeks to make old men young, when he ought to worry about making them useful, has a new invention.

Bearish, made of the pituitary gland, took away inside the skull, works wonders in rejuvenating aged rats. Animals, half dead, are made young.

Steinach should try that on Wall Street bears. They need it.

Another 4,000,000 share day, brokers getting out of bed loaded with overnight orders, 15,000 shares of General Motors was the first bite of one financial breakfast. On that one order the brokers made $175,000. No wonder stock exchange seals are traveling toward the $1,000,000 mark. "Fifty thousand at the market." That's all, only six words.

Dr. Winifred Seckville Stoner, who is a lady, says "Man is superior to woman, mentally, physically, artistically and psychologically."

That is not all true, especially the "physically and psychologically" part of it. That supposes it were true. Michelangelo's nose is a finer product than Michelangelo made it.

Whichever a man to whom we want made him, and the producer is nobler than the product. Because a cocoon is more than a product.

To make or save money, use your brains. Levitation of the American shipping board fleet saves $12,000 every trip on fuel, and still does 23 knots an hour. An improved propeller will save that one ship $200,000 this year.

Mr. Didi, brave Ceylonese, makes a living by putting his head in an elephant's mouth twice daily for Mr. Ringling's circus.

The elephant lifts him up by the head, carries him around, and one of his ears is almost worn away. With one little new idea, Didi could live a life of luxury and save his ear.

The moral is "THINK."

Mr. Houghton, American ambassador, told London "Henry Ford has made us see that high wages are an integral part of prosperity."

That is true, and it is Ford's phrase from Page 13, Column 5.

REPORTS OF "MILITANT" BREMEN UNCONFIRMED

Hope dwindled today for the safety of the German-Irish crew of three aboard the Junkers transatlantic monoplane Bremen, although several reports were made of a plane having been either sighted or sighted over Nova Scotia. The fuel supply of the silver-hued steel monoplane would be exhausted before 5 p. m., today, according to officials at the Baldonnel air field, Dublin.

SAYS READING GAVE RECEIPT FOR $25,000

The legislative committee hearing testimony on Alty Con. Reading's conduct in the case was informed today that Reading signed a receipt for the $25,000 paid him by Decimo Club.

That receipt, the attorney-general showed the attorney-general was guilty of no underhand proceedings but was a bona fide transaction.

Asked by Chairman James of the investigating committee whether he employed Reading "because he was attorney-general," Webster replied that the attorney-general's statement that the receipt was given under cross-examination by Alty, Edgardo Anderson for Reading, and obviously intended to show.

$31,000 NECKLACE IS LOST OR STOLEN IN HUB

A pearl necklace with diamond clasp, valued at $31,000, was lost or stolen today, its owner, Mrs. H. L. Chaffaux of 238 Marlboro st., New York, reported to the police. Mrs. Chaffaux said she was wearing the necklace, containing 61 pearls, walking down the street when it was lost.

U. S. PROPOSES WORLD TREATY AGAINST WAR

Washington, April 13 (AP)—Great Britain, Germany, Italy and Japan, were invited today to join France and the United States in negotiation of a world-wide treaty binding the nations not to resort to war with one another.

2 MEN, HIT BY TRAIN, DYING IN HUB HOSPITAL

Struck by an inbound Framingham train while at work on the tracks under the Brookline ave. bridge today, James Schuler and Benjamin Norcross, section hands, are dying at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Severely injured men were placed aboard a special train and taken to the hospital. They were sustained fractured skulls and their names were placed on the danger list.

BRAVES OUT TO EVEN COUNT WITH GIANTS

Giants, New York, April 13 (AP)—After a battle of one day, due to the poor condition of the field yesterday, the Braves and New York Giants resumed their four-game series at the Polo Grounds this afternoon.

The weather was ideal, although a pure wholesome food tonic, Dr. J. M. Williams' Pink Pills, was taken by the players.

TODT BANGS OUT TWO HOMERS

Senators, New York, April 13 (AP)—Phil Todt here today as the lucky Red Sox first baseman smashed out two home runs in successive times at bat. Todt got his first circuit drive in the third inning and his other in the fifth.

The Sox hammered Tom Zachary off the mound while the Senators drove Willie to the showers.

There were about 5000 fans on hand for the contest.

The Red Sox lost, 4 to 1.

FIRST INNING
Senators—Phil Flanagan, Judge joined in Red Sox, NO RUNS.
Red Sox—Retrick flew to ground, Zachary threw out Todt, Harp. The Red Sox lost, 4 to 1.

Bulletins

Officials at the East Boston airport at 3 p. m. today expressed the fear that the transatlantic monoplane Bremen would be shot down.

Portland, Me., April 13 (INS)—An airplane sighted over Cape Elizabeth, N. H., wireless station had radioed that a plane passed over New Brunswick at 5:20. It could not be learned whether the plane was believed to be the Bremen.

An unconfirmed report picked up by the National Coast Guard station from the R. C. A. station at Chatham stated today that the Louisville, N. H., wireless station had radioed that a plane passed over New Brunswick at 5:20. It could not be learned whether the plane was believed to be the Bremen.

GENERAL MOTORS HITS NEW HIGH MARK, $199.50
New York, April 13 (AP)—General Motors hit a new high record at $199.50 just before the close today, closing at $199.25. The General Electric closed at a new high of $199.75, a gain of $1.25.

At 3:30 p. m. (eastern standard time), nearly 39 hours had elapsed since the Bremen hopped off from Baldonnel with Capt. Herman Koehl, German war pilot, the controls, and with Commander James E. Fitzmaurice of the Irish Free State air force as co-pilot and Baron von Huenfeldt, backer of the flight, as passenger and observer.

The first report indicating that the fliers might be seen, and at the North American coast, came from Capt. Barkhouse of the steamship Arras off Kingsport, N. S.

This report was that Barkhouse sighted a plane at about 9 a. m. (Eastern Standard Time), although it was flying so high it was impossible to distinguish any markings on it.

A short time later came a report from Kingsport itself that a plane, believed to be the Bremen, had flown high over the town at 9:30 a. m. These times would put the Bremen only a bit behind its schedule as outlined before the takeoff.

The third report came from Yarmouth, N. S., where a plane was reported off the coast. Inquiry at Quaddy Head coast guard station, near Eastport, Me., the next jet of land into the sea on the planned course, brought information that no plane had been seen.

NINTH—Regan threw out Retrick, and K. Williams, Myer tossed out Judge. NO RUNS.
Hulman batted for Settlemire, and in Gilts. Rothrock singled. Todt hit into a double play. NO RUNS.

SHIP CAPTAIN 'SURE' HE SIGHTED BREMEN OVER NOVA SCOTIA

EXPERTS CLING TO HOPE OF BRAVE FLIERS' SAFETY

seen or heard, although all transatlantic fliers east-bound have flown over Quaddy.

Annapolis in central Nova Scotia contributed a report of a plane's passage and there were a number of other reports, these last obviously false, received by news agencies.

One report even stated that the Bremen had arrived in New York.

Shortly after noon, it was reported that a plane had been sighted flying over Bath, Me., and Portland, Me. This plane, it was later learned, was a biplane in the service of a newspaper, and was on a mission of picking up the Bremen. The transatlantic craft is an under-wing monoplane.

Kingsport, where one man asserted that he was sure the plane above the Basin of Minas village was the Bremen, is about 500 miles from New York in an air line and the big monoplane would take at least that number of hours to reach its New York goal from Kingsport.

Between Nova Scotia and the first reaches of Maine, visibility was poor at noon today. There were clouds hanging in the sky and a 30-mile wind was blowing out of the west.

During the earlier part of the day fleet fell in northern Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland—a bad omen for the transatlantic fliers, although they had coated the wings and fuselage of the big plane with paraffin before the takeoff.

At Kingsport, however, the weather was clear when the drone of a motor was heard high in the air, according to Clarence Patterson, a Canadian war veteran, who served overseas.

Some clouds were in the sky and Patterson, who said he was working indoors when the sound was first heard, could not see any plane and believed it might have been above the clouds.

Both Patterson and a Capt. Barker, who was working with him, said no other plane had been seen in the vicinity for weeks and so far as they know, no plane was operating there.

Meanwhile, at Boston, preparations were made at the Boston Airport to receive the daring fliers if they should be forced down because of lack of fuel or any other cause. Maj. Gen. Preston Brown, commanding the First Corps Area, ordered that a detail of fliers be ready to take the air and give escort to the Bremen as an aerial reception.

Plane Thought Bremen Seen Over Kingsport, N. S.

Kingsport, N. S., April 13 (AP)—A plane, flying very high and proceeding westward, was sighted over Kingsport at 10:30 o'clock, Atlantic standard time, this morning by Capt. Barkhouse of the Canadian government marine straits. Capt. Barkhouse said it was too high to distinguish any machines, but he was sure it was the German plane Bremen.

He said several other persons saw and heard the plane. Kingsport is on the west shore of Minas Basin, on the balance of Nova Scotia, four miles from Cape Sable. It is a small town with a population of 11,000 miles from New York, airline.

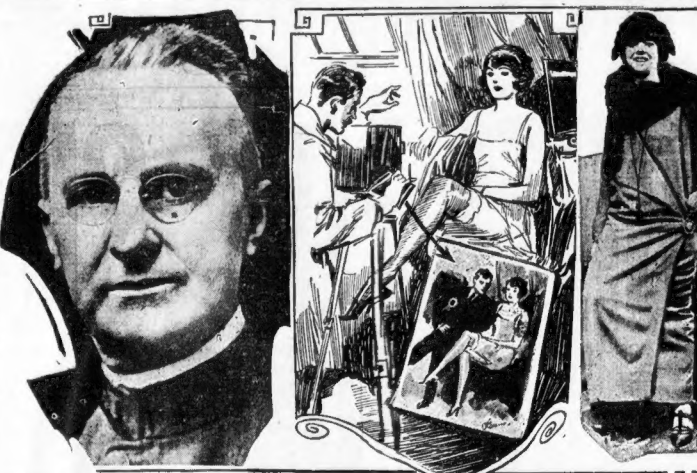

Unconfirmed Reports From Ocean Steamers

The last definite word of the Bremen came from Aran Island, at the entrance to Galway Bay, Ireland, and civil guards on the island reported sighting the plane at 2:25 o'clock, yesterday morning. Steamers stand at anchor. After that all trace of the machine was lost.

A vague report was circulated that the plane had been sighted at sea, but this was not confirmed and was generally discounted. The steamer had planned to follow the steamship lane over the North Atlantic, but none of the 14 ships scattered along that route reported sighting the plane.

Two ships, however, were reported having heard the drone of an aircraft while off the North Atlantic coast. It was known that the crews of the three German ships were without sleep, all hands in the effort to hear and see the diver plane, and it was thought that the crew of the Bremen had allowed their hopes to

ERIN CONFIDENT FITZ WILL WIN; CROWDS WAIT

Dublin, April 13 (AP)—Ireland confident that "Fitz" Fitzmaurice will come through his great Atlantic venture.

The handsome, daring, devil-may-care Irish aviator has had a thousand narrow escapes in his dozen years of flying and the Irish everywhere that he will get through with his two German companions. Newspaper effort in Dublin and the flying field at Baldonnel have been devoted with telephone calls and personal attention from early morning.

Crowds surrounded the windows of newspaper offices where pictures of the fliers and the Bremen's start are displayed.

Up and down O'Connell st. and the narrow, crowded shopping center of fashionable Grafton st. men and women inquired whether anything had been heard of the Bremen and friends usually parted with a murmured prayer on their lips for "Fitz" and his German comrades.

Boston Navy Yard Ready to Search for Fliers

Fearful that the crew of the German plane Bremen have been lost, the U. S. Navy today took steps preparatory to organizing a search for them, to start from the Boston Navy Yard.

Rear Admiral Philip Andrews, commanding the First Naval District, recalled the navy tug Lark, which has been carrying compass stations. The tug was ordered fueled and provisioned for two weeks, with instructions to stand by at the navy yard, awaiting orders to start search for the missing aviators.

It is believed destroyers will also be ordered to take part in the hunt if the fliers are not heard from today.

The fliers are commanded by Chief Petty Officer W. A. Johnson and has a crew of 23 men, all of whom are aboard waiting orders. The tug has a speed of 12 knots.

THOUSANDS AT N. Y. FIELD WAIT FOR BREMEN

Michoud Field, N. Y., April 13—Between 5,000 and 15,000 men, women and children were massed back of the airport at the flying field here this afternoon patiently awaiting the arrival of the German monoplane, Bremen, which left Baldonnel, Dublin, Ireland, at 8:45 a. m. on Thursday.

A line of motorcycle police encircled the landing field. Many of the visitors stood on top of motor automobiles, on buildings and other vantage points.

An atmosphere of suppressed excitement prevailed over the field as reports came to the field of a plane, possibly the Bremen, having been sighted at various places over Nova Scotia, Woodstock, Mass., and later heading toward New York city.

EVERYTHING READY.

Everything was in readiness for a landing at the field. A crowd of about 100 persons broke into cheers and rushed the police lines guarding the flying field this morning when a plane the watchers believed to be the transatlantic Bremen swooped to ground. When the plane proved to be the Junkers C-3, master ship of the Bremen, and to have arrived after a non-stop flight of but one mile from Curtis Field, the crowd groaned and retreated from the field.

Among the watchers at the field were three relatives of Capt. Herman Koehl, chief pilot of the Bremen. They were Prof. A. J. Koehl, New York music teacher, an uncle of the aviator, and his two children, Alfred and Margaret.

STILL HOPEFUL.

"I'm sure my nephew will arrive safely," Prof. Koehl said. "It is too early to think of giving up hope."

The other occupants of the plane, Baron Ehrenfried von Huenefeldt, sponsor, and Col. Fitzmaurice, copilot, have no relatives in this country.

Florida and Shurhardt Junkers, daughter and son of the manufacturer of the Bremen, arrived in one of their father's planes.

"Any news?" asked Herta as she stepped from the cabin.

Informed there was none, she

2 Wives of Bremen Fliers Bravely Await Tidings

New York, April 13 (AP)—Two wives, one in Ireland and one in Germany, today waited anxiously for news of the fate of the Bremen, piloted by their husbands.

"I am no child and want to face the facts," Mrs. Hermann Koehl said in Berlin. "I'll go about my work calmly."

Years dimmed the eyes of Mrs. James Fitzmaurice as she saw her husband climb into the plane and start down the runway at Baldonnel airbase.

In one corner of the airbase "Pat," eighty-year-old daughter of Colonel Fitzmaurice, played with two new pets—an Alesian pup named "Bremen" and a few days old lamb which her father had cooked into her bed after finding it on the airfield.

"Well, we won't worry yet. And we won't give up hope until 8 o'clock tonight."

Mrs. Junkers and Capt. Koehl also intended to take a southern course across the Atlantic, flying a considerable distance south of Newfoundland, and heading straight for Michoud field.

MRS. PINCHOT RESENTS DRINK CHARGES

Canton, Pa., April 13 (AP)—Mrs. Cornelia Bryce Pinchot, wife of former Governor, doesn't mind being interrupted in her political speeches by her opponent for the Republican congressional nomination in the 18th Pennsylvania district, but she resents the implication that she drinks intoxicating liquor.

In her whirlwind campaign of the district, she invaded the home town of her opponent, Representative Louis T. McFadden, and while addressing a big rally was frequently interrupted by the Congressman.

McFadden retorted, "How dare you say you don't drink? Show us 'put him out' filled the building."

"No, let him remain," said the subcommittee woman. "I do not drink, and he knows it. If elected, I shall vote dry, live dry and give all my patronage to dry people."

"Your own life has not been as much beyond reproach," she told the Congressman.

GIRL SPEEDER WHO HIT IT UP IN REVERE FINED

Miss Dorothy Walsh, 24, of Hyde Park, in Chelsea District Court today was found guilty of speeding and was fined $10. The fashionable, attractive young woman, accompanied by her mother, Edith Walsh, 40, who passed intersecting streets at 45 miles an hour and was making 45 when stopped on the Revere marshes by Motorcade Officer Driscoll. The officer testified he drove the car for two miles along Broadway, Revere, before overtaking her.

In addition to the predicted chill, there are indications of troubled skies on Sunday. Week-end forecast, therefore, should be prepared for sunny temperature, possible rains and chilling easterly winds.

SENATOR WALSH ENDS HUB VISIT; DEPARTS FOR R. I.

U. S. Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, proponent of the Taft-Hutchie oil scandal, left Boston today for Newport, R. I., for a visit to his daughter, Mrs. E. C. Gardner, wife of Capt. Gardner of the War College at Newport.

"I Sure Hope They Make It," Says Col. Lindbergh

Santa Barbara, Cal., April 13 (INS)—The man who first spanned the Atlantic by air has nothing but admiration and heart wishes for Capt. Herman Koehl and his companions in the Junkers monoplane Bremen.

Upon hearing the news that the Bremen was winging its way to American shores, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh evidenced great concern over chances for success of a flight in a westward direction, according to reports today from the Monticello estate of Mrs. Laura J. Knight, near here, where the Lone Eagle is resting.

"I sure hope they make it," Col. Lindbergh is reported to have said. "Those boys have nerve, considering what has happened to the others who tried to fly westward over the Atlantic."

SEER PREDICTS
BREMEN WIN

Berlin, April 13 (AP)—Mrs. Eva Morgenstern, noted German astrologer, who accurately predicted the outcome of the Chamberlain-Lewis transatlantic flight, issued a forecast this afternoon that the Bremen would succeed, she said:

"The fliers have to fight many obstacles but they will finally succeed, you thought they may arrive later, but they planned, Capt. Herman Kowal has the necessary will power, it is the strongest I have ever found in any transatlantic."

All Germany Is Excited Over
"Safe" Report

Berlin, April 13 (AP)—Great excitement is caused here and throughout Germany late this afternoon by a cable message to the Deutsche National Bank that the Bremen had already landed at New York.

Quebec, N. S., April 13 (AP)—The string of wireless stations around the Gulf of St. Lawrence of the Department of Marine and Fisheries which had been limited to flash word of the sighting of the Bremen remained silent this morning.

LONDON UNEASY FOR BREMEN

London, April 13 (AP)—The British air ministry has kept careful watch for reports of the Bremen's flight, but none had been received up to 2:30 p. m. today. The ministry officers and others are anxiously waiting news. A note of anxiety is already beginning to creep into the accounts published in the evening papers.

Among many inquiries received at the Admiralty Press was one from Mrs. Hinchliffe, whose husband, Capt. Walter Hinchliffe, never came back from his transatlantic flight.

FLIGHT BULLETINS!

St. John's, N. F., April 13 (AP)—High visibility and generally excellent flying weather yesterday had given way this morning to strong southwesterly winds and a low visibility as watchers anxiously scanned the horizon for some trace of the Bremen. An all-night vigil by coastal wireless stations and the powerful ionospheric plant at Cape Race proved unavailing.

Belfast, Northern Ireland, April 13 (AP)—The German steamer Delphinus, which put into Galway for about two hours, reported that she had picked up a message yesterday from a steamer further out at sea that the Junkers plane Bremen had been sighted by that vessel. The name of the steamer was not known and no details were given. The Delphinus herself did not sight the transatlantic plane.

BOSTON COUSIN HOPEFUL FOR HUENEFELD

Edgar J. Levinstein, wealthy Boston dressmaker's importer and cousin of Baron von Huenefeld, today refused to accept as final the fact that the baron and his two interlopers were about the Bremen have perished. "Knowing the undoubted skill and industry of my cousin, I feel sure I will make it," said Mr. Levinstein. Mr. Levinstein is the retired president of the Boston Trust Co.

Phone Calls About
Bremen Greatest
Since Lindy Day

All Boston today seemed to be talking of the transatlantic fliers and sad at the growing probability of failure—another tragedy.

Telephones in the Boston Evening American office were busy with calls from persons seeking information and the calls increased, to large volume as the time arrived when, if safe, they should be hearing Boston.

Not since Lindy's famous flight has there been such wide interest shown here in an Atlantic hop as in that of the two daring Germans and the brave Irishman.

York said conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church today stood for several minutes in silent prayer for the safety of the Bremen and its crew.

GERMAN PRESS
GIVES HOP 20
PLACE IN NEWS

Berlin, April 13 (AP)—Popular enthusiasm in support of the Bremen flight was slightly dampened today by the entry of politics.

Most of the papers depicted the story of Kowal's flight as the feature of the day and gave the Milan bombing preference.

They continued to stress the risk taken by the fliers. Some were even characterizing the flight as a sporting event.

The Democratic papers were necessarily riled up again by the flight because the fliers displayed the old black, white and red Imperial flag instead of the black, red and gold Reichsmann emblem.

The Morgenpost, one of the big papers in Germany, declared that "the flight, even if successful, would add little to German prestige, as the fliers departed without even taking the German colors along."

E. I. LEVINSTEIN

dent of the Trust Co. Corporation of America and device much of his time to the heading of horse at his farm in Hingham.

"The baron and I are cousins," he continued, "and I frequently met him at his parental home on my trips to Germany."

"As a young man he was intensely interested in aviation and where other young men spent their time in pursuit of vain hobbies, he attended to the secrets of all engines."

"Possibly his plane has been downed down by terrible head winds, but I know he was prepared for any emergency and deep in my heart I have a hunch he will somehow alight at Mitchell Field."

Plane Would Slow Up From Kingsport, Says Expert

New York, April 13 (AP)—Dr. James H. Kimball, meteorologist of the United States Weather Bureau, said today that if the airplane reported sighted at 2:30 a. m. (Eastern standard time) over Kingsport, N. H., was the Junkers multimotor liner, it will almost certainly arrive in New York sometime after 3 o'clock this afternoon.

From northwest winds will probably cut from 15 to 25 miles from the hourly speed of the plane for the 20-mile stretch from Kingsport to New York, but the craft should be able to proceed at from 70 to 85 miles an hour, he said.

"If the fliers have progressed that far," Dr. Kimball said, "nothing but a serious accident will stand in their way of success."

Concord, N. H., Flier Off
in Hope of Meeting Bremen

Concord, N. H., April 13 (AP)—Robert H. Fugle left the Concord airport shortly after noon today in an open cockpit monoplane for Old Orchard, Me., with the intention of cruising up and down the Maine coast in the hope of meeting the German transatlantic plane Bremen. He was accompanied by one passenger. Shortly after the German aviators had flown from Germany to Ireland an invitation was sent to land at the Concord airport in case they encountered the flier along the New England coast.

POLICE HONOR DRISCOLL AND WIFE, 25 YEARS WED

Many girls were presented Police Inspector James J. Driscoll and his wife, Mrs. Rose E. Driscoll, at a celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary at their home, 75 Almont st., last night. Police officers were present from every district of the city, but mostly from headquarters and from the East Boston station, to which Inspector Driscoll was assigned 22 years before going to Cambridge. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll were married April 12, 1898, in St. Mary's Church, in the North End. Both were born in the West End, and after her marriage, Mrs. Driscoll was Miss E. Malone. They have two children, Allen, James, Thomas, Mary and Joan.

BETTY ALDEN NOTES PROMINENT BOSTONIANS SAILING FOR EUROPE

Many Names Adorning Social Register Are Inscribed on Passenger List of S.S. France

WHETHER TO STAY AT HOME OR GO A-TRAVELING IS A QUESTION never long undecided with the Smart Set. With an amazing regularity, frequency and facility they go abroad, to the end that the home lark is not more home to them than are London, Paris, Rome or Cairo. The steamship France, tonight at midnight, takes out some prominent Bostonians. In fact, there's never a ship outbound that has not on board some member of the Upper Crust.

BOSTON'S CONTINGENT ABOARD THE FRANCE INCLUDES SUCH socially consequential ones as Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lyman of Commonwealth ave., David Sears of Chestnut Hill and Miss Edith Hanges of Beacon st. The Lyman's go abroad this year, without fail, and Miss Sears crosses the Big Pond frequently, as is the Smart Set way. Mr. Sears on this particular trip goes to join Mrs. Sears, the former Miss Ellen White, a Young Set leader par excellence. They will do some sightseeing and traveling before turning homeward.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR W. HARTT will be aboard the France tonight, en route to fulfill some official Girl Scout duties. Mrs. Hartt being a representative to a world congress of that movement in Hungary. For full many a year Mrs. Hartt has devoted her time and her resources to this, her favorite cause, and now she goes abroad to meet other leaders of the little girls who wear the khaki uniform.

THE E. SCHIER WELCHS OF LOUISBURG SQ. ARE VARYING somewhat their travel program for this year. Not waiting for the June exodus to Old World shores, they depart tomorrow to spend the next three months on the Continent, varied by excursions across the Channel or the Mediterranean. When Mr. and Mrs. Welch go abroad their itinerary is of an elasticity compatible with last moment rearrangements. Usually they go "all over" and travel into the more or less out of the way spots.

THIS THEY MAY DO WITH EASE, SINCE THEIR MODE OF shore travel is by motor. Their own, transported thither for the exact purpose of taking them way off the beaten track, since both are already well acquainted along the tourists' highways to London, Berlin, Vienna or Paris. On a recent tour abroad some out-of-the-usual pieces of furniture, chosen with connoisseur taste, were shipped for and are now adorning the Welch establishment on the lower side of quiet, old Louisburg sq., with its tall houses circling a bright bit of greensward.

MR. AND MRS. FRANCIS CUSHING ROBINSON ARE DOING some honeymoon traveling abroad and will come sailing home late in April, following their wedding celebrated in London only two days ago. Had the bride so chosen, and been married at a local church, instead of faraway London, the nuptial celebration would have been an important occasion; because of family connections, of course, but principally through the bride's prominence in Junior League affairs. She has been a president of the younger set exclusives, and personally has a great popularity.

TO HAVE A TREK INTO DEEPEST AFRICA FILLED onto the thrill of coming out winter is not the portion of every girl. The John B. Paines of Weston, however, contrived that very experience for their debutante daughter, Miss Julia Paine, and for good measure took along an elder daughter, Miss Helen Paine, when they invaded British East Africa for big game trophies and the experiences attendant to journeys in the far places. Now they have "come out" and are back at home again, after their exciting six months.

DRUSILLA PENN
The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ramo A. Penn of Lime st. is a happy sprite at play in the Public Garden, on the days when spring is really here.

THE FRANK B. PAINES WITH their small daughter Jennie, were in the African party, along with Mr. and Mrs. John Paine aforementioned and the two Paine daughters. To the Frank Paines (interior Africa is not a terra incognita). They have done a trek along the path followed by so many hunters of big game, some inland from Mombasa in British East Africa, straight to the late of the lion.

SOCIETY RALLIES TO THE support of the American Legion first annual ball on "Patriotic Day" at the Statler and reserve boxes for this sure-to-be colorful service affair. Mesdames Philip W. Wren, Robert Treat Paine Storer, L. Cartere Penno, Lynn Wayburn, James Cunningham Gray, Clarence R. Edwards, John J. Sheehy, Alfred Winsor, Timothy Adamowski, Lincoln Baylie, Horace Binney and Louis A. Frothingham are on the list of patronesses. The Legion is doing itself proud on this, its first ball. There will be prize drills and theatrical specialties, besides marvellous music for the dance.

GREECE EXILES PANGALOS;
11 PLOTTERS ARRESTED

Athens, Greece, April 13 (AP)—Discovery of a Pangalos plot and decision to send Gen. Theodoros Pangalos to Ispahan prison on the island of Cos, were announced today. Eleven officers were arrested, and a letter stating that Mns.

Pangalos had contributed $50,000 drachmas ($2000) to the conspirators was seized. Pangalos has been in prison in Athens waiting hearings of a charge of treason growing out of his rise to power in July, 1926, when he assumed dictatorship and subsequently became president.

FIVE STOWAWAY
GIRLS CAUSE
NAVY PROBE

Washington, April 13 (AP)—The destroyers Brooks and Williamson were ordered today to proceed to Newport, R.I., in connection with the court of inquiry ordered by the Navy Department of the discovery of five girls stowaways on ship of the scouting fleet. Men aboard the ships are acting as witnesses.

Four of the girls were from New Orleans, while the fifth, 15 years old, was from St. Petersburg, Fla. Navy Department information today was that four of the girls were found on the ship.

The girls were charged with "aiding and abetting civilians to take passage on a naval vessel" or "in any moral turpitude is involved, with scandalous conduct."

QUINCY CITY AUDITOR CASE
MAY GO TO SUPREME COURT

The city auditor's fight in Quincy, which has caused an acute situation in the government of that city since March, may be heard by the Supreme Court, next week.

The court will be asked to determine whether Elizabeth N. Dunn, appointed by Mayor Thomas J. McGrath, is the legitimate incumbent of the office, or if Martin A. King, elected by the City Council, is the real auditor.

Up to Feb. 23 of this year, the Council has always elected the city auditor. On March 1, Mayor McGrath appointed Miss Dunn to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Auditor Fairbanks. At its next meeting, March 5, the Council followed its customary policy and elected an auditor in the person of King. The Council has retained Atty. R. H. Norcross and the Mayor will be represented by City Solicitor J. J. McManney.

4 NEAR DEATH
AS FRISKY CAT
TURNS ON GAS

A reticent cat that bounded from the floor to a table top in a strident, South End, home, nearly caused the death today of Thomas Corey, his wife and their two children, Helen, nine, and Alfred, three. When the cat leaped to the table while the family was asleep a small gas stove was disturbed. It fell to the floor, the fall disconnecting the gas tube.

The gas poured into the second floor apartment. Coughing of one of the children awakened the father, who smelled an alarm when he discovered the other three members of his family had lapsed into unconsciousness. Then he too collapsed.

Police arriving at the house rescued the four victims to the City hospital, where it was said they will recover.

The bandit shot him dead, thinking he had his other hand on a gun. Post had lost the arm in an accident several years ago.

As a change from potatoes, young and old should eat more Macaroni*

A pleasing and appetite-stimulating change for the whole family. As W. A. Schmitt, nutrition authority, points out, potatoes have 15 per cent waste in the peels and take 35 to 40 minutes to peel and cook, while with Macaroni there is no waste, and preparation takes only about ten minutes.

*What is said here about Macaroni applies with equal force to Spaghetti.

Henry Mueller says—

"I could easily make Cooked Spaghetti to sell at a few cents less than Mueller's does now. But it wouldn't be the same fine product. It wouldn't have the same fine ingredients in the sauce. It wouldn't taste so good. And it wouldn't be the sort of Cooked Spaghetti that I would be proud to have go out as Mueller's."

great service to his age, next to making automobiles more plentiful than buggies.

The British were amazed when Henry Ford, at a banquet in his honor, made a speech containing only twenty-nine words. It was his first speech.

Cornwall could make a speech in fewer words than that. The greatest statements are short. For instance, "Let there be light," or these ten words, "Give light, and the people will find their own way."

Early yesterday, in civilized Greater New York, Julius Rubin, nineteen years old, a few hours earlier, in a prize fight, a "blow to the jaw" knocked him to the floor, backward.

He is dead, and detectives are investigating. They might investigate, while they are about it, politicians that divide profits on prize fights.

If men set two dogs to fighting and one was killed, the men would be locked up. There isn't much money in dog fighting.

A railroad built by American, British, German and French engineers to connect the Persian Gulf with the Caspian sea, will cost $30,000,000. And, most interesting, howling locomotives will run through territory believed to have been the Garden of Eden. How that would delight little Cain and Abel, and amaze Eve and the snakes, if they could see it.

ARREST MAYOR FOR AID IMPROPER PERFORMANCE
Hackensack, N. J., April 12.—Mayor Nicholas Morone of Hackensack, who also holds the chief of police, was arrested here with misfeasance in office in aid and abetting in the production of an improper theatrical performance. He was taken into custody as he left the auditorium in which the performance was given.

FOX COMPANY TO FILM NEW ADE STORY
By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
LOS ANGELES, April 12.—George Ade was one of our first American humorists to write for the screen. I remember when the major roles were really in their much loved literary, looking at a picture in Calcutta with him. It was pretty odd. Not his story, but the execution.

Instead of seeing the producers who made it, Ade professed to think that they had done a very neat job. Now that the picture is being made in the theatre, another copy of his is about to be made. The screen will tell us if the story is as good as the literary. "The Grange" a recent magazine story of Indiana's famous humorist has been purchased by the Fox company. Al Green, the director, who has been heard spoken in his literature that he is allowed to make a comedy, will direct it.

Edmund Love, who is now on the First National, is acting with his wife in Cullen Moore's picture, will play the male lead. Love Moore, the wonder child, who has been under the 2nd National for many months, will play the female lead. Speaking of Eddie and his wife, Lilyan Tashman, Love says, "He is a fine fellow, but he is not a good worker with him. He knows me too well," she added. "He criticizes everything I do."

PUT this name down, Leo Bliniski. You may have occasion to see it again. He comes from Russia. You know that word, you know such a moniker. Moreover, he is the man that wrote "Lucky," the novel-to-be-forgotten East of Eden picture, and "The Tragedy of Love" and "Three Men Working," all of them well known German pictures.

Leo Bliniski was one of the other two who, as well as Conrad Veidt and Emil Jannings, who is now on the First National, who was brought to this country and put under contract to Famous Players-Lasker. P. B. Bliniski also wrote "Serenade," world-famous play, translated into 12 languages.

THERE is no rest for the wicked. That means you and me and a lot of us good people, including Marion Davies. "Folly Preposterous" this week just in time for King Vidor to join his wife in New York and take a trip abroad. But it doesn't mean that either in through with her picture week. Not by a long shot, or close either, she begins work next Monday.

THAT curious young man, Frank P. Donovan, who is trying to uplift the movies by making two-foot short story clowns, is bringing Ivan Turgenev, the famous Russian author, into his repertoire. "The Electric Doctor," by Turgenev, is the next after which Fox, De Munnich, Rialto, Elton, and others will be represented. The first of the Donovan series, "The Necktie," featuring Mary Alden, has been completed. It will be interesting to see how these classic films.

SNAPSOTS of Hollywood celebrities at random: Buster Collier, devoted himself to a pretty woman at the Coconut Grove, Page Costello, Timpano, On second thought, don't. It's his mother he was entertaining. In said Barthelme, news giving the women at First National a treat by making him self in a barbershop. "I love you" at the Hollywood bowl. Easter service. Sena Owen, lunching with Julia Faye at the Montreux. Spontaneous, wearing a brown lavender sports suit, with 1 or 2 to match. Pauline Garon, dining with Harry Collins and getting the view-band on what the well-dressed woman will wear. The hard Arden trying out Johnny Rains's new sport roadster. Estelle Taylor, Dempsey, giving the boulevardiers a thrill by appearing in a new and better. That's all today. Thank you.

Take Your Pen and Plan a Birthday Theater Party

What's a birthday to boys and girls without a party? And what better party than to be a special birthday guest of the Boston Evening American?

That is why so many boys and girls are writing letters to the birthday Editor telling him why they are glad their birthday happens to fall on the date it does. In return they receive a ticket to Loew's State Theater and also an attractive birthday card.

Approximately 100 boys and girls are writing their letters each day and sharing this great privilege. If you haven't sent in your letter yet, do so before the opportunity passes. Don't let your lucky chance pass that you can't write a good letter. You can, and that's all that is necessary. Two simple rules only govern this invitation. You must not be more than 18 years old and your letter must be written within the week that ends on your birthday. Now think of some reason why you are glad your birthday comes on a certain date, then write a short, snappy letter and send it to Birthday Editor, Boston Evening American & Winter 24, Boston.

Blindfolded...in scientific test of leading Cigarettes, Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt selects OLD GOLD

Mrs. REGINALD C. VANDERBILT

"I wonder if one can really tell the difference, when blindfolded," was my first thought, when invited to make this test.

"After smoking the four brands, as they were handed to me one after another, I discovered there was one that was noticeably smoother than the others and richer in taste.

"This proved to be an OLD GOLD. I hope I shall be able to buy them in Paris... they are surprisingly free from any trace of throat irritation and have a delightful aroma which to me is very important."

Why can you pick them in the dark? Because they're made from the heart-leaves of the tobacco plant

How Test Was Made

Mrs. Vanderbilt was blindfolded, and, in the presence of two responsible witnesses, was given one each of the four leading cigarettes to smoke... To clear the taste, coffee was served before each cigarette... Mrs. Vanderbilt was unaware of the identity of these cigarettes during test... After smoking the four cigarettes, Mrs. Vanderbilt was asked to designate by number her choice... She immediately replied: "Number 3" ... which was OLD GOLD.

THIS year's model girl certainly has her job cut out for her! Once upon a time, if a girl was pretty and well bred and knew how to hang onto a man's coat sleeve gracefully and to use her eyes and make a pun, she could get by and be extremely popular and happy. But NOW she has to be a "kiss-off" in order to attract any male attention. She must make "itty and a permanent wave and an original 'do," and enough clothes to stock a fashionable "shoppe," or she will certainly be HEKED.

CALLOUSES

and Burning Soles

In one minute Dr. Scholl's Zino-pads for Callouses give you complete relief. They stop the friction and pressure of shoes and are quickly healing. Removing callouses with harsh liquids or acidic plasters is usually often causing acid burns. Zino-pads are soft, protective. At all drug, shoe and dept. stores—50¢ per package.

But daughter must have hair, shoes and lingerie to match every ensemble, and must "look like a million dollars" on twenty dollars a week. "Gee, if a girl had more than one or two buns, she was regarded as a "collet." But now, unless she can keep at least half a dozen men in love, and have a different "date" for every evening in the week, she is considered a "lame." And the thought of that makes every girl's blood congeal.

Once, she knew that if she wanted romance and real love and marriage, she'd have to be smart, and sympathetic, but reserved and hard to kiss. But now, she doesn't know WHAT to do. If she refuses to "let it slide" and is classed as a "Non-Notion" or a "flat tire," and never invited out. And if she DOES let it slide, she is only one of a crowd, and will be treated today and forgotten tomorrow. She doesn't know whether to sit at home alone, and wait for the One Man to come along, or to succumb to the unwise counsel of one boy after another, until she finds the One Man. But the black fear of not being a "riot" is forever haunting her.

Don't let anybody tell you that the White Rock Cascaders aren't doing their share of musical uplift. What are they offering to the great American public? The tonic of nothing less than solos on the mandolin by Monster Samuel Siegel, former solo horn of De Mott's, the Samuel Siegel Trio and the Blue Devils.
